ITINERARY

DAY 1: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : ARRIVAL IN RENNES

Welcome to Rennes

Rendez-vous at your charming hotel, ideally located in Rennes. Brittany's capital offers many surprises: cobbled streets, half-timbered houses and historic buildings such as the Parliament of Brittany. Don't miss the Place des Lices and its lively market where you can sample local specialities. Overnight in Rennes.

DAY 2: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : FROM RENNES TO HEDE-BAZOUGES

159m ascent, 44 km

After a hearty breakfast, your cycling journey begins at the lock on the Ile et Rance canal. You start your sporting adventure in Brittany on a pleasant surface in the middle of an undulating landscape. Your first stop is at the Bazouge basin, a water reserve for the canal, offering a unique sight with its eleven flower-bedecked locks. Arrive in the charming village of Hede-Bazouges, in time to visit the Château de la Bourbansais and its formal gardens.

Overnight in a family-run hotel**.

DAY 3: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : FROM HEDE-BAZOUGES TO DINAN

134m ascent, 41 km

After a restful night, your cycling adventure continues with a descent through the "11 locks". Your first stop is the Tinténac lock-keeper's house, with its museum, before continuing along the towpath through Brittany's bocage countryside. You will pass through typical Breton villages such as Pleugueneuc and its château de la Bourbansais, or Léhon, one of the most beautiful small towns with its picturesque houses and warm atmosphere. Your day ends in Dinan, a medieval town perched on an imposing rocky outcrop.

Overnight in a 3-star hotel.

DAY 4: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : FROM DINAN TO SAINT-MALO

116m ascent, 27 km

Get ready for an exciting day on the sea spray. You leave the canal to join a beautiful greenway through the Breton countryside. Stop for lunch in Dinard, a 19th-century seaside resort. Take time out to explore the magnificent period villas and stroll along its beaches to enjoy the coastline. After this short stop, embark on a short cruise to cross the mouth of the Rance: you'll reach Saint-Malo by sea, a famous corsair town for its sailors. Take time to stroll around the old town, explore the ramparts and taste the seafood that defines Malouine gastronomy. Overnight in a 3-star hotel by the sea.

DAY 5: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : FROM SAINT-MALO TO CANCALE

185m ascent, 26km

You're leaving Saint-Malo. The 26 km ride to Cancale is a picturesque discovery. Between centuries-old 18th-century malouinières and the seaside, the route takes you to a seaside lunch, steeped in local flavours. Arriving at your destination, the bustling port of Cancale welcomes your bikes. Explore the quays, admire the boats and give in to the temptation of the region's famous oysters.

Overnight in a 3-star hotel by the sea.

DAY 6: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : FROM CANCALE TO MONT SAINT-MICHEL

83m ascent, 48km

The day begins with a promise: to reach the architectural marvel that is Mont Saint-Michel. You'll cycle along a 48 km route, alternating between small country roads and seaside lanes. Halfway along the route, you'll take a well-earned lunch break at the foot of Mont-Dol, offering a view of this foreign rock, lost in the middle of flat marshland. After this invigorating break, a few more kilometres through salt meadows will bring you closer to Mont Saint-Michel. On arrival, a final stage awaits you: a climb on foot to the heights to reach the famous abbey.

Overnight in a *** hotel

DAY 7: FROM RENNES TO MONT SAINT MICHEL BY BIKE : LOOP AROUND MONT SAINT-MICHEL AND DEPARTURE

136m ascent, 35km

Before setting off, treat yourself to a panoramic loop around Mont Saint-Michel. The route will lead you to the Roche Torin : this promontory offers breathtaking views of this architectural wonder. This panoramic experience will leave you with lasting memories of your cycling trip in Brittany.
