This holiday on the French west coast takes you along one of the most beautiful stretches of the Vélodyssée, which runs from Roscoff to Hendaye.

6 days / 5 nights from €670

ITINERARY

DAY 1: VISIT ARCACHON BY BIKE OR ON FOOT

Arrival in Arcachon

Stopping off in the fresh, iodised air of the Gironde, the change of scenery becomes obvious: from vineyards to pine trees, it's just a few pedal strokes away. But these conifers not only hide extraordinary wildlife, they also reveal invigorating panoramas. The day ends with a ferry crossing of this legendary basin.

Once you arrive in Arcachon, don't hesitate to let yourself be seduced by the typical oyster-farming villages, steeped in the history of this region.

NB: The tour starts when you arrive at your accommodation in Arcachon if you choose the Arcachon - Biarritz 6 days/5 nights tour.

Dinner on your own and overnight in Arcachon.

DAY 2: FROM ARCACHON TO BISCAROSSE

Distance cycled : 30 km

After a peaceful night's sleep, you'll set off for the sunshine and beaches of Biscarrosse. Of course, we recommend the unmissable Dune du Pilat and the surrounding ocean beaches, where you'll be sure to come across storks and herons. If you want to take advantage of the beaches to stop off for a break or try your hand at water sports, the Salie beach is ideal for its fine sand and watersports facilities.

Dinner and overnight in Biscarrosse.

DAY 3: FROM BISCAROSSE BEACH TO MIMIZAN

Distance cycled : 40 km

After strolling along the Atlantic beaches, you're back in the shade of the Landes pines, ready for a peaceful getaway to see the old oil wells near the Landes town of Parentis-en-Born. And what could be better than a pleasant break near the Lac d'Aureilhan to discover the 300 or so varieties of flowers and shrubs that border it. Not far from the paper mills, take the time to discover the seaside resort of Mimizan, your destination. You can either drive along the oceanfront, renowned for its board sports, or inland, where the atmosphere is more rural and natural.

Dinner and overnight in Mimizan.

Suggestion 2: Additional night in Mimizan

Possibility of taking advantage of the water sports centre and all the activities it has to offer. Whether you're in the mood for exploration or just a leisurely stroll on the Mimizan lake, Pacific boats (Hawaiian pirogues), kayaking or paddleboard lessons are all on offer to provide you with moments of sporting pleasure.

DAY 4: FROM MIMIZAN TO CAPBRETON

Distance cycled : 65 km

Next stop, Capbreton! But before that, it's back to the peace and quiet and wild landscapes of the Landes forest. We do, however, recommend stopping off for a while at Lespecier beach to enjoy the warm, photogenic setting. You should also pay tribute to the majestic lighthouse at Contis-Plage, the largest in the Landes region. The route continues on to Léon, Moliets-et-Maa and Vieux-Boucau, three towns you won't want to miss, where you can spend a day strolling through their authentic, lively streets.

You've now arrived in the town where surfing is king, and where surf lovers come to meet the most beautiful breakers. Make the most of the evening by strolling along the beach, taking a photo of the ocean from the jetty or eating an ice cream!

Dinner and overnight in Capbreton.

DAY 5: FROM CAPBRETON TO BIARRITZ

Distance cycled : 58 km

Last day of the trip to the heart of the Landes before discovering the treasures of the Basque Country. Passing through Bayonne, you'll discover the Basques' sense of hospitality: between exceptional sites, gastronomy and intangible heritage, you won't be disappointed. The Izadia ecological park is a marvellous place to discover, as is the grotto of the chambre d'amour and its surrounding area for the more curious. Just before you arrive, take the time to make a short diversion to the Pointe de St-Martin, home to the Dout cliff and its lighthouse. You'll finally arrive at your destination, with Biarritz in front of you, the ocean as far as the eye can see, its hydrangeas and palm trees... Of course, what would Biarritz be without the postcard-perfect Rocher de la Vierge? The view from this end of the pier is sure to take your breath away.

Dinner and night free in Biarritz.
